Who Are We?
What's So Great?

People

I am fifty-five years old. I am over ninety years old. I have been a member of SUGA and its predecessor for over twenty years. I am a new member.

People

I attend every class. I attend only whenever I can. I am a very busy person. I have plenty of time on my hands.

People

I want to share my strong background in many fields. I want to learn as much as I can.
I am an introvert. I am an extrovert.
I am anyone. I am everyone.

Coffee and Tea – Social Time

The highlight of going to class is the social break where we can talk, discuss, laugh and figure out the world.

We Really Like Our Social Time

Dedicated Instructors

The Instructors make the difference. Many are retired professors or people who love to share knowledge of their field or their passionate interests.

Dedicated Instructors

There's science,
literature, history,
arts, theatre and
movie lovers... there's something for everyone's interest.

Dedicated Instructors

I may not be able to remember everything I learn, but I love experiencing it at the time of presentation and always feel enriched

Field Trips and Special Exhibits

Field Trips

We Run On Volunteers

Volunteers greet us,
plan our curriculum,
recruit instructors,
organize us, feed
us, make sure SUGA thrives and continues

So Many Volunteers

In our current stressful negative world I love having the opportunity to be a greeter and trying to make class mornings as cheery and welcoming as I can when folks walk through the door

So..... Many Volunteers

So..... Many

We even have a free library where we can swap and borrow books!

Extraordinary Volunteers

Without Jim Little, there would be no classes! He's our IT specialist, always there when there's any problems.

THANK YOU JIM!

What Would We Do Without....?

Executive Director:
Bill Beeson

He keeps us organized and heading in the right direction.

THANK YOU BILL!

It's All of Us

No matter who I am, SUGA is one of the best things that I have found to enrich my life these days. I am not old. I am young. I am fortunate to have found this organization, filled with wonderful people who serve as examples of how to keep me young, keep me interested, keep me involved, keep me learning, keep me having fun, keep me on my toes, keep me looking forward to more education, more friends, more opportunities to prove to myself that the world is a wonderful place.

Don't Forget a Strong Foundation for SUGA

Poetic Tribute to SUGA

How Do We Love SUGA?

Let us count the ways:

We love it for the interesting classes

That enhance our minds & our days,

We look forward to Wednesdays and Fridays, our favorite days of the week.

We love the “recess” with the candies, coffee, and tea.

We love seeing “old” friends,
making new ones and learning
new things with heart-warming glee.
